Event: May 2007 Event: Post Exam Fun @ the Ballpark

Topic: White Sox Game vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays

Spring is here! As any actuarial student knows, this means exams are just around the corner. And, as soon as exams are over, it will be time to have some fun! We are sponsoring an actuarial group outing to a baseball game at U. S. Cellular Field, home of baseball's 2005 World Series Champions, the Chicago White Sox. Seats will be located in the upper deck, above home plate. Comiskey Cash will be provided at the game to exam takers, supervisors, proctors, and review class instructors. Other attendees will be responsible for their own food & drinks.

Date: Friday, May 25, 2007
Game begins at 7:11 p.m.

Location: US Cellular Field (New Comiskey Park)
333 West 35th Street, Chicago, IL 60616

We will provide tickets to exam participants and members of the Chicago Actuarial Association or the Wisconsin Actuaries Club at no charge. We will ask other guests to pay $20 per ticket. Payment can be made in advance by check or credit card. At the ballpark, exam takers will get $15 in Comiskey Cash by presenting their original ticket of admission to the exam (for FAP modules, please bring proof). Exam supervisors, proctors, and review class instructors will also get the $15 in Comiskey Cash by presenting a photo ID if their name is on Pat Pruitt's list of exam volunteers and instructors. Members and others will be responsible for their own cash expenditures.

Directions to US Cellular Field can be found at
