

Membership

If you were previously a member of the Chicago Actuarial Association, have passed at least two exams of the Society of Actuaries or Casualty Actuarial Society, or are a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, then you are eligible for membership with the Chicago Actuarial Association for the 2017 calendar year. As a member, you will receive discounted entry to events qualifying for continuing professional education requirements. The annual dues for 2017 calendar year membership is $40 per actuary.

- I. Point your internet browser to www.chicagoactuarialassociation.org/membership, or click the Membership link from the homepage, and enter your registered login and password (circled in red below in Figure 3).

The screenshot shows the Chicago Actuarial Association website. The header includes the organization's name and tagline 'Connecting Chicagoland Actuaries'. A navigation menu lists: HOME, EVENTS, REGISTRATION, MEMBERSHIP, PROFILE, ABOUT, and CONTACT. The 'MEMBERSHIP' section is active. The main content area is titled 'Membership' and states that membership is renewed annually and open to specific individuals. It lists four categories of eligible members: 1. Any member in the prior year, 2. Anyone who has passed at least two exams of the Society of Actuaries or the Casualty Actuarial Society, or their equivalent, 3. Any member of the American Academy of Actuaries, and 4. Any person identified by the Nominating Committee as having a continuing interest in the activities of the Chicago Actuarial Association (honorary membership). Below this, 'Benefits of Membership include:' are listed: discounted tickets to educational events, discounted tickets to social events, optional online access to the member directory, and optional online access to member groups. On the right side, a 'SIGN IN' form is circled in red. It contains fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Remember Me' checkbox, and 'Log In' and 'Register' buttons. Below the form is a search bar and a 'FOLLOW US!' section.
